July is the seventh month of the year in the Julian and Gregorian Calendars and the fourth month to have the length of 31 days. It was named by the Roman Senate in honour of the Roman general, Julius Cæsar, it being the month of his birth. Prior to that, it was called Quintilis.

Ten Years On! A Big Thank You and a small request

Ten years ago, on Monday 16th July 2007, I was licensed at Hatherleigh Parish Church as Priest-in-Charge of Hatherleigh, Meeth, Exbourne and Jacobstowe. With the addition of Northlew to our group at the beginning of 2010, and then joining together with the eight parishes of the Northmoor Team, I now glory in the snappy title of 'Team Vicar in the Northmoor Team Ministry with special responsibility for the parishes of Hatherleigh, Meeth, Exbourne, Jacobstowe and Northlew'

As we celebrate 10 years here, I just wanted to say a BIG THANK YOU to you all for your welcome, friendship, and understanding, as I have learnt the ropes, both as a vicar and a mother (with more still to learn). It has been a lovely place to start a family, and Brendan and Krysty have benefitted from being involved with all sorts of happenings across the parishes. It is a privilege to serve as a church minister in such a beautiful place with such welcoming people, and I am grateful to you all for what you reveal to us of God's love and generosity.

Every two years, parish clergy in the Diocese undergo a review of their ministry and look at things they might do to grow and develop. At my last review with Bishop Nick McKinnel at the beginning of March, we identified that, after 10 years, my office and filing system is no longer fit for purpose, and that having time to properly redo the filing system and sort it out would help me to work more effectively in the future (and reduce my stress levels). He therefore asked me to block out two weeks without parish or service commitments to 'mine deep' in my office. I will be doing this from Monday 17th July until Sunday 30th July (although I will appear at some school leavers' services and a couple of special services during this time).

Therefore, my small request is that you should only contact me during this time if there is anything urgent. Please note that I will not be regularly checking my email during this time, but will check the answerphone.

Thank you for all your kindness and support!

Rev. Ruth Hansford (and Paul, Brendan, Krysty, and the dogs: Flynn, Swallow, and Eby; and the cats: Smokey and Bandit.)

Saturday 2nd September 2017

Sunshine and Showers
Northlew and Ashbury Produce and Craft Show
Saturday 2nd September 2017

Well, the recent heat wave and subsequent showers have certainly been making the garden grow. This is just a reminder to everyone to collect a Show Schedule which outlines all of the categories for the Northlew and Ashbury Show. These are available from the Village Store, Green Dragon, Church Rooms or Victory Hall. With over 50 different categories, there really is something for everyone.

As always, there are categories for favourite fruit and vegetables such as apples, potatoes, runner beans, tomatoes and much, much more.

The flower arranging categories this year include: a garden on a plate, 'Sapphire Jubilee' and 'Story Time' - you can use your imagination and creativity to design a display for these categories, keeping within any size guidelines. These flowers do not need to be home grown.

New categories this year include photography classes - a black and white photograph entitled 'Faces' or a colour / black and white photograph depicting any aspect of 'Northlew Life'. There is even a category for your favourite 'selfie'.

There are special classes for children only, but do remember that anyone under 16 can also enter any open class too. The specials for children include the chance to build a shoe box house or vehicle, design a piece of jewellery or decorate a gingerbread man. Of course, there is also an opportunity to show off your largest Sunflower Head - we keep hearing tales of sunflowers planted at the Fun Day growing really well.

For those who enjoy all things crafty, needlework, crochet and knitting are joined this year by a category for an item created using recycled materials and, of course, there is an open class for 'any other craft item' for your own favourite activity - be it wood turning, pottery, glass blowing, jewellery making or any craft at all.

Last but not least, this year, for the first time, there is a chance to enter a bottle of your home made cider, wine or non-alcoholic soft drink, alongside the ever popular sloe gin and liqueur classes.

All entry forms and fees (25p for each category entry for adults, free for children) must be returned to the Village Store or Rosemary Cottage by Wednesday 30th August.

We are still looking for helpers on the day - so if you can help with setting up tables in the morning, or selling refreshments in the afternoon, please do let us know.

We look forward to making this a great fun event for all the family.

Devon Air Ambulance Landing Site

Our fund raising to support the Devon Air Ambulance night time landing site is going very well.

The fund raising target is estimated to be £13,500 (some costs still have to be confirmed) and it is incredible that we have raised just over £11,000 in such a short space of time. This has been achieved through a mixture of successful grant applications, the organization of events specifically to raise funds for the project and donations made from clubs and individuals to support it.

Very many thanks to everyone who has been involved in the fantastic effort to date.

Included in the £11,000 is a grant of £3,222 which we secured on the 29th June from the Town and Parish (TAP) Fund.

In next month's edition of the Northlew News there will be a full length article about the project with a breakdown of the funds raised to date.

Northlew Walking Group

On the 16th June we held our 'special' walk to Beaworthy.

The walk was arranged to raise funds for the restoration of the village church, via the sale of 'cream teas' supplied by residents of Beaworthy.

Not sure if it was the good weather, or promise of cream teas, but it was great to see 20 walkers gathered in Northlew square at 2pm for the 3.5 mile walk. Prior arrangements had been made to leave sufficient cars at Beaworthy to transport people back to Northlew after the refreshments.

Walkers included, Pat Carter, Julie Phillips with Ted and Archie, Trevor Miller with Bess and Kim, Paulette Bowman, Sue Sanders, Marion Dufty, John and Enid Maguire along with two friends Mike and Anne Bendix, Chris and Angela Baines. From outside Northlew were Pat Richardson, Shirley Lloyd, Jenny Anderson with her brother Mike Stone, and Chris Allen. This month we welcomed Steve and Diane Hargreaves, who take extended holiday's in Devon, and love walking in the County. Also Jehna Jennings, a friend of Paulette Bowman, and regular walker with the Okehampton Walk & Talk group.

The walk was confined to country lanes, and consisted of a gradual climb between the two villages, from 484 feet at Northlew to 627 feet at Beaworthy. We took several rest stops to keep the group together, and catch our breaths, before reaching Beaworthy at about 4:15pm

Although refreshments were promised at the church, we were overwhelmed by the quantity and quality of the fare provided. Along with cream teas, were cream buns and Victoria sponge cake. 2nds and 3rds were willingly offered, and everyone took full advantage of the hospitality on offer.

It should be stated at this point, that Sue Sanders accompanied by Steve and Diane Hargreaves, walked the 3.5 miles back to Northlew after the refreshments. Thanks go to Debbie Lock and her helpers Pam and Jim Williams, Ian Sanders, and Sandra Ward for providing the refreshments, and making our walk a thoroughly enjoyable day out. It was gratifying to learn that £100 was collected on the day, which will go towards the much needed church restoration efforts.

Also a special thanks to Holly Dancer, who couldn't join us today, but kindly donated £5 anyway.

Chris

Gardening Tips for the month

By Harriet King at 'Down to Earth' – Practical Garden Advice

As I'm writing this, the mists are rolling in after a few heady days of sunshine. I'm praying that that wasn't it for 'summer'!

High Temperatures

The plants and gardens have been taken a bit by surprise by the high temperatures. Don't be surprised to see the leaves on plants like acers going brown and crinkly. Don't despair - they should recover and put out new albeit smaller leaves.

Clematis wilt

One of the most annoying diseases to strike at this time of year, is clematis wilt.

If you see a stem wilt and then collapse with blackened leaves in places, for apparently no reason, then prune it right out down to the base. Dispose of the infected material in your household waste, not in the compost bin!

Tomatoes

Tomato plants often put out flattened new growth in very hot weather, known as fasciation. Again, they should 'grow through' that stage although it will look odd. And looking at tomatoes...don't forget to side shoot regularly ie. remove the small side branches that sprout in the leaf axils. If you don't, you will end up with a mass of tangled growth that diverts energy from fruiting.

Also remove all the lower leaves up to the first truss of fruits in order to improve air flow - this helps prevent the dreaded tomato blight and helps ripening.

Potatoes

You can get potatoes for your Christmas dinner if you plant a few second earlies in an old recycling bag/large pot, which can be moved inside/to a frost-free greenhouse before the first frosts arrive.

Courgettes

One last veg tip - nip out the growing tip of courgette plants to encourage more fruiting.

Deadheading

Give hardy geraniums that have finished flowering, a haircut right down to the base to encourage a new mound of foliage and hopefully, more flowers. Be ruthless and get the shears out to do this.

Keep deadheading...not just annuals and hanging baskets, but perennials such as lupins, delphiniums and of course roses.

Top tip for this month!

The Biochar/Goldchar top dressing mentioned in one of my previous columns and applied round the roses in particular has so far been a resounding success; far more blooms and hardly any Blackspot despite the weather and no spraying. So well worth the recommendation!

Enjoy the sunshine...happy gardening!

Recipes for the month

Omelette Arnold Bennett (a lovely dish that does for any meal)

Ingredients

50g butter

4 tablespoons cream or crème fraîche

125g smoked haddock, cooked and flaked

Salt and pepper

15g grated Parmesan

3 eggs, separated

A little chopped parsley or chives to decorate

Method

Melt half the butter in a small saucepan. Remove from the heat and stir in half the cream and the fish. Season to taste. Stir the egg yolks into the fish mixture being careful not to break up the fish too much. Whisk the egg whites until just stiff enough to form soft peaks and fold into the fish mixture with half the cheese. Melt the remaining butter in a preheated 8 inch omelette pan. Add the fish mixture and spread evenly in the pan. Cook fairly quickly until just beginning to set. Sprinkle with the remaining cheese and place under a very hot grill until the cheese is lightly browned. Slide the unfolded omelette onto a warmed serving dish. Pour over the remaining cream and sprinkle with parsley or chives (or both). Serve immediately.
